PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

1989 was a good year in some respects.

The playing standards improved considerably and there could be no argument when we saw the W.A. side turnout against Moscow Torpedo.

Under the conditions, they all responded magnificently.

As good as the playing was, the administration of the code was not up to standard for reasons which everybody is familiar with.

It is no use dwelling in the past; mistakes were made and these are acknowledged.

In future they may have proved to be a blessing in disguise.

Complacency does not benefit any part of our game, and certainly we are now aware of this.

It has been encouraging during the whole of this time to find out the support that has been given to the administration and to myself in particular by all facets of the code, for which I am most grateful, and thank you all for your tolerance and patience.

We must now look forward to a new season and if the Moscow Torpedo game is any indication, then we have started off on the right foot.

The Night Series has had a tremendous start and this augers well for the winter series competition, starting in April.

The Clubs are ready; the players are ready; and the administration is also ready.

We give the best we possibly can to the general public and our supporters.

We welcome to our ranks our new Secretary, Arthur Naoum, who brings a wealth of experience in administration and we wish him well for a long and distinguished career with us.

There is no doubt that the administration of soccer throughout Australia is going to undergo some dramatic and, we hope, worthwhile changes.

Some of these changes will be welcome, and some of them will be criticized.

We are looking forward to further visits from international teams because, if the rain had not intervened with the Moscow Torpedo match, there is no doubt it would have been a huge financial success.

The only thing we can do now is ensure that we get the maximum support for all our Clubs, both in supporters and in finances.

I pledge the administration to concentrate on the finance side in to reduce the strain placed on clubs.

Thank you all for the work you have put in, and a big thank you to all our sponsors.

John Williams.

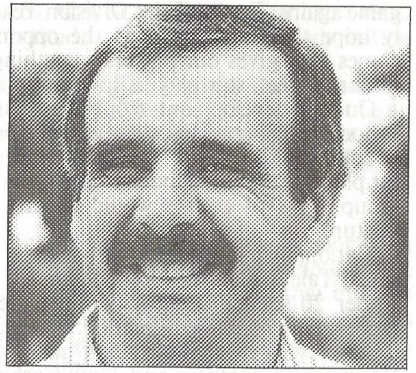
SECRETARY'S REPORT



Welcome to the 1990 season. I appreciate the honour that has been bestowed upon me as your new secretary and I'm fully mindful of the challenges that lay before us.

One of the immediate aims is to establish a professional relationship with clubs and club officials. I appreciate, of course, that there will be a brief settling in period when I will need to familiarise myself with the overall scene and get to know all of those people who devote their time and energies towards making soccer in Western Australia a success.

I am particularly keen to develop a strong rapport with all affiliated clubs. In this regard I will certainly encourage a straight forward and open door approach towards solving any contentious matters that may arise from time to time.

My main task for 1990, is to establish a blue-print of the future direction of the code for the Department of Sport and Recreation. The interim council is currently examining this project, with input from every level of soccer.

The council's aim is to provide as much information on the future of the code as possible and piece it together in submission form to the State Government.

I am confident that together we can achieve our aim to see soccer prosper in WA.

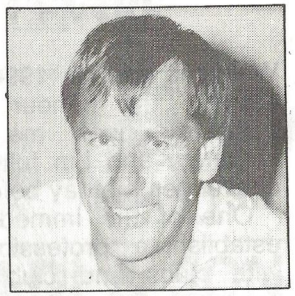
DIRECTOR OF COACHING REPORT 1990



1989 proved to be a very busy year again. It was great to see the Western Australian State Team in action again with a game against English First Division Team Millwall. I certainly hope that the team gets the opportunity to play more games as it gives our players something to aim for and our junior players, star players to look up to and emulate.

On the development front the District Academies and Schools of Soccer Excellence are going from strength to strength and it is my intention to introduce a Soccer Institute for players from the Under 14 age group to the Under 18 age group. This of course would depend on funding for the venture.

National Championships seem to be a thing of the past now and the programmes are called Talent Identification Schemes. This comes through the World Cup Under 17 and Under 20 squads being a two year development and qualifying programme, with the Under 17 Talent Identification now starting at the Under 14 age group. This year sees three players from the State Under 14's Squad, Paul Russell from Rockingham City, Vasilious Kalogeracos and Tony Carbone from Perth Azzurri selected for the Under 20 Camp at the A.I.S. in March.

Coaches attending Coaching Courses were up in numbers last year and we are two seasons away from compulsory accreditation in Junior Soccer and I am hopeful that the Soccer Federation will follow suit and have all coaches that coach Federation teams accredited.

I am hopeful that I will be involved in the Coaches Association more than in the past as I also see a need for all coaches to be a part of this organisation.

In 1990 coaches of Federation clubs will have to pay a $5.00 levy fee imposed by the Australian Soccer Federation to support the running of National teams.

I would like to see a coaches registration scheme which will encompass all of the above and provide the coaches with some assistance and security in their jobs.

One of the sad things about 1989 was the retirement of Eric Worthington, the National Director of Coaching, which was a little premature owing to Rothmans Sponsorship withdrawal. This has left a big gap in the Coaching Scheme as Level Three and Level Four Coaching Courses were sponsoring by Rothmans.

Eric did a tremendous job in setting up a National Coaching Scheme which a lot of other sports in Australia based their coaching schemes on.

Eddie Thomson, the new National Director of Coaching, will no doubt continue on the good work with the Coaching Scheme as Eddie is a very positive person with some good ideas on where soccer in Australia should be going. I am hopeful of getting Eddie to visit Western Australia on a couple of occasions this year which will give coaches an opportunity to meet with Eddie and see his work first hand.

Coaching Courses run in 1989.

Course Venue	Level	Coaches

The Sports Specific Course was run to bring coaches up to A.S.F. Level One accreditation after attending the Sports General Level One Course.

STATE YOUTH SQUAD

In 1989 the Under 18 State Squad finished third in the National Championships after failing to make the final following the 4-2 defeat by New South Wales after extra time. The players showed a lot of character and good attitude which won a lot of admiration from people at the Championships.

Stan Lazaridis and Brian Keegan were selected in an iterim squad for the camp at the A.I.S. which will compete in the Youth World Cup in 1991. This year there will not be an Under 19 Championships but the Under 16 Talent Identification Programme for the 1993 Youth World Championships will be run later in the year, this is for players born after 1st August 1973.

SPECIAL SCHOOL

1990 sees the start of the Special Soccer School to be run at John Curtin Senior High School. Peter Rickers will be in charge of the course and it is run in close conjunction with the Soccer Federation and the Education Department. It could well mean that in three years time some 120 boys could be receiving soccer coaching during school hours. This is a big plus for soccer as it will not only improve players skills, but also coaching, referring, sports injuries and physchological testing will all be a part of the programme.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES

Once again 1990 will prove to be a busy year during the school holidays with the following programmes to be run.

Soccer Fun Clinics	April and July
State Team Coaching Camp	July
District Coaching Clinic	July

Soccer also provides coaches for other soccer activities run by Aussie Sports, Superdrome Sports School and various other organisations. Coaches are needed for these activities as they would not be able to function if coaches did not make themselves available.

My thanks to all the coaches who staffed the actvities during 1989 and I look foward to your support in 1990.

THE NATIONAL COACHING SCHEME

Changes have been made to the National Coaching Scheme following the Meeting of the State Director in February this year.

It has been decided that the Coaching Levels shall be up dated and the General Coaching Principles shall now be added into Level I and Level II Soccer Coaching Courses, with the Fitness for Soccer section to be put into Level II also.

It will be compulsory for all coaches coaching in Federation and Junior soccer divisions to be accredited by 1992 to the following levels.

Federation Clubs

Super League First team, Youth team and Under 18 team all level III accreditation.
Premier Division first team Level III, Reserves Level II.
First Division first and reserve teams Level II.

Junior Soccer Association

State Teams Level III accreditation.
All other divisions Under 10 upwards Level I accreditation.

LEVEL ONE COURSE

The Level One Course is for coaches who need to learn how to organise young players with enjoyment and satisfaction as the major objectives.

Most of the instruction is by lecture demonstration with some time spent on gaining the skill and knowledge required to organise players into game type practices.

The course is for 15 hours and an attendance certificate is provided on completion of the Course. One session will be theory session covering some general principles of coaching, first aid, growth and development in children and the video Coaching For The First Time. It is now compulsory for coaches to attend a Level One Course prior to attending a Level Two Course.

LEVEL TWO COURSE

The Level Two Course is designed for coaches who are expected to held young players to develop their individual techniques and skills in using them in a game.

Coaches shall have attended a Level One Course or played at the top level prior to attending this course.

The course will run for 38 to 44 hours plus home work. The course content will cover 8 practical sessions, 3 theory sessions on general principles of coaching, some home work and 2 final assessment sessions.

Coaches are expected to take part in practical sessions. Coaches who reach the required standard will receive an identity card those who fail to reach the standard will receive a certificate of attendance.

LEVEL THREE COURSE

This course is designed for coaches who want to coach players at senior level and need to develop team play.

There are three parts to the Course and they must be completed over a period of not less than a year.

Part A Is for a period of 5 or 6 days and is normally residential.
Part B Is for the duration of one playing season during which coaches are given guidance in coaching practice.
Part C Is a 2 to 4 day period where final assessments and further instruction is given.

Assessments are made continuously in the two main areas of the course. These areas are:

Practical Coaching
Theory of Coaching

A Planning the Programme part of the course will be given in lecture form and then the candidates have to give in a written programme for a six week period and a detailed session programme. This can be done with the team the coach works with.

The title of senior coach of the Australian Soccer Federation is awarded to those coaches who reach the required standard.

For any further information or application forms for the Courses please ring the Director of Coaching on 444 6777.

A Sad Loss

West Australian Soccer was dealt a sudden blow in April of this year with the loss of Arthur Kelly.

Arthur, a friend and servant of soccer in WA for many years, passed away while touring Singapore with the Perth Italia 14-17 Youth Development side. Few people involved in soccer would not know of Arthur, who loved soccer with a passion and gave a lifetime commitment to the game. Arthur will always be remembered for his outstanding contribution to junior development in WA. Three times State Junior Coach, three times State Junior Manager and involved with East Fremantle Tricolore and later Perth Italia, Arthur's greatest pleasure was helping foster the players of the future.

The Soccer Federation wishes to convey its deepest sympathy to his wife Anne and family on this tragic loss. He will be sadly missed.

SOCCER EMU EXPORT LEAGUE

What a year 1989 proved to be for soccer in Western Australia! In just its second year of operation the Emu Export Super league provided soccer enthusiasts with one of the tightest competitions ever seen in this state.

The standard of play was as good as it has been for many years, which was reflected by the 5,500 screaming fans who attended the Grand Final in October. For the many people working behind the scenes to make soccer a success in WA, the size of final crowds were extremely pleasing. The first two seasons were difficult years for the code, marked by dramatic changes in both club and senior administration and on the pitch. The Super League Commission, conscious of the job before it, made tough decisions which at times put them out of favour with different soccer factions. These actions are now starting to bear fruit and the Commission must be commended for its outstanding achievements in 1989.

The competition itself starting off in fierce fashion. Perth Italia, victorious in the Night Series and Rotary Charity Shield, both times over Athena, took an early stranglehold on the Cup. The wholesale changes made to the club after an indifferent 1988 were paying off, and Italia looked the team to beat. However, they lost momentum and could only watch as Athena, the 1988 premiers, stamped their intentions for a second crown. Under the eye of coach Ken Worden, Athena were soon three games clear of the pack, a position they held for the rest of the season.

While Athena stormed away from the pack, the other seven clubs were caught in a cock fight for a place in the finals. Italia were by no means out of trouble. Hot at their heels were Croatia, Macedonia and Sorrento, yet again the dark horse of the competition.

Led by player-coach Colin Irwin, Sorrento continued their tough brand of football, preying on the inadequancies of their opponents. Sorrento troubled every side in the Super League and may have challenged Athena for top spot, if not for eight drawn games which cost them points. Macedonia had similar trouble, drawing six games, however demoralised a number of clubs with their explosive ability to come from behind.

State goalkeeper Willie McNally will play a vital role in Macedonia's quest for the 1990 Super League premiership.

Neil Garvey in a desperate attempt to get to the Export

Croatia stayed in the hunt for a finals berth to the bitter end, despite the absence of a spearhead in attack. However, early success proved insufficient for Croatia to make the finals and they had to be content with fifth place. Olympic were somewhat the opposite. After a disastrous start to the season, Olympic changed coach Francis Burns and appointed Ray Illot, with immediate success. What followed was a string of victories. The late run was, unfortunately, too late for Olympic, who eventually finished sixth on the ladder.

For Inter and Dalmatinac, who finished seventh and eighth respectively, the end of the season was somewhat a welcome relief. Despite patches of form throughout the season, both lacked consistency and the strength to match the top sides. It was however heartening to see a talented crop of juniors coming through the ranks at both clubs, which looks good for 1990.

At the culmination of the season it was Athena, followed by Italia, Sorrento and Macedonia to fight it off for the Emu Export crown. This was the first time a final series had been used to decide the premiership.

Sorrento and Macedonia met in the first semi final, a do-or-die clash for both sides. After a torrid encounter it was Sorrento who took the honours, which signalled the end to Macedonia's 1989 campaign. In the second semi final Athena stamped their usual dominance of the game, taking the match 2-1 and forcing Italia into the Preliminary Final with a determined Sorrento. From the outset, Sorrento looked a more complete side, rested after a two week break and desperate for victory. The Percy Doyle side took the lead in the first half from a flat-footed Italia, when Cliff Collins found the net. However, Italia fought back in the second half, Roy Hogan equalising after 10 minutes and Oriano Colli made it 2-1 midway through the term, giving Italia the match.

Athena went into the Grand Final short-priced favourites after beating Italia in the second semi-final and thrashing them 3-1 in the D'orsogna Cup final the previous week. However, Italia dominated for the better part of 90 minutes, marching forward through Joe Vecchio and Gerry Christie, winner of the inaugural Chris Gogos medal. It was Peter Murphy to open the scoring, after a number of early chances went begging, when he headed home from a Joe Vecchio cross which beat Alan Davidson. Athena's forwards were unable to stamp their influence on the game with Dave Evans and Robbie Dunn dominating at the back. As much as they tried, Athena could not find the equaliser and Italia took the match and the premiership 1-0.

BEST WISHES TO CLUB PLAYERS AND OFFICIALS FOR THE 1990 SOCCER SEASON. I HOPE THIS GREAT GAME BRINGS MUCH ENJOYMENT TO YOU ALL.

PREMIER LEAGUE — A VIEW TO 1990

For many Premier League clubs, 1989 was a very difficult year indeed. Despite a closely fought competition on the pitch, off the field clubs faced a number of problems which, at times, seemed insurmountable. The effect of Random Breath testing took its toll on many clubs with low bar takings, the lifeblood of most clubs. Excessive player wage demands also became a problem, with a number of clubs simply unable to accommodate the demands of some players. Faced also with the loss of the R & I Bank, which pulled out of sponsoring the league clubs, found the financial noose around it tighten as the year went on.

With these problems in mind, a subcommittee was formed for the purpose of gaining sponsorship for the league in 1990, a do-or-die year for many clubs. This is just one of the moves made by the league to bring clubs back onto level ground. Another idea, which was aired at a League Management meeting earlier this year, is the possibility of appointing club assistants to help clubs deal with and overcome the problems they face. Under the proposal, three assistants would be allocated five clubs, each to advise, and assist in any way they can. Those appointed would not be watchdogs, looking over the shoulders of club administrators, but rather people conscious of the problems clubs face and eager to work with, not against, the clubs affected.

Whether or not such schemes are adopted, it is nethertheless encouraging to see the league working in positive fashion to face problems head on.

In 1989, Kelmscott and Kwinana were the front-runners on and off the pitch. Both clubs worked hard to reorganise their administrations and this paid off, Kelmscott and Kwinana finishing first and second respectively and achieving promotion into an expanded Super League. Kelmscott have dominated the Premier League for the last two seasons, on both occasions winning the premiership. With their promotion, and that of Kwinana's, the competition in 1990 has been thrown wide open.

Last year a number of clubs threatened the flag, namely Benfica, Kiev, Caledonians and Ferndale. Rockingham City also sent a shiver down the spines of top clubs, leading the table in the first round. In fact, just 12 points separated the top seven teams at the end of the season, a reflection on the strength of the league.

It remains to be seen how the clubs mentioned and the others will perform this season. All clubs have worked tirelessly over the summer months to prepare for 1990. If the resurgence of clubs who finished at the bottom end of the table last year in the 1990 Night Series is any indication, Premier League followers are set for a nail-biting competition.

FIRST DIVISION — A NEW BEGINNING

The First division, formed by the amalgamation of the two leagues was made after it became obvious two lower leagues were simply impractical. The difficulty in drawing players to clubs, in attracting sponsorship and in existing was a burden many clubs could no longer face. The two leagues had become incestuous, to the point where clubs were fighting amongst themselves for the same sponsors. This only served to drive business away from the league, a problem the First Division will seek to arrest.

It hopes that clubs will work together in a unified attempt to gain sponsorship. The success of this goal will very much determine the fate of many clubs in the division.

After last seasons furious action, soccer followers can look forward to another bumper season. The promotion of Swan Cracovia, Hampton Phoenix and Melville Alemannia into the Premier league leaves the league wide open, and it is expected last year's Fourth Division clubs will be fiercely competitive. There is an excellent group of talented juniors coming through the ranks who are expected to play senior football this season. Already Super League clubs have targeted a number of faces in the First Division, players expected to climb up the ladder to the Super league over the next two seasons.

ACCEPTED PROCEDURES FOR THE P&D BOARD REFEREES AND PLAYERS

When the Laws of the Game have been infringed:

P&D BOARD:

The P&D Board will meet every Tuesday evening during the season and when required at other times, i.e. the Night Series.

The members of the P&D Board will not be associated with any club on any level.

The P&D Board will consist of a penel of five of which three must sit on each occasion.

The members of the P&D Board will not receive payment but will be issued with a pass to cover all league games and will receive an invitation to the Federation Gold Medal Award, plus tickets to all special games.

REFEREES:

Any Referee sending a player from the field of play must forward a report, in duplicate, to the Federation Office, to be received no later than 5pm on the Tuesday immediately following the match concerned. In the case of mid-week games. Two clear days after such a game.

Should the report deal with foul and abusive language, then suitable indication of the word will suffice.

Initially the referee's report will be used by the P&D Board to determine their decision, but should they require the referee to attend the case will be put back one week while the referee is requested to put in an appearance.

PLAYER:

When a player is sent from the field of play by the referee, he must return to the dressing room as he is not permitted to sit on the substitutes bench.

The player must attend the P&D Board meeting on the Tuesday evening, immediately following the game in question and he should telephone the Federation office before 2pm on that day to ascertain the time of his hearing.

The player may bring witnesses to speak on his behalf.

Should a player not attend the P&D Board meeting, the case will be heard in his absence.

SCHEDULE OF GENERAL STANDARD OF PUNISHMENT

The undermentioned are guidelines and can be used by the P&D Board after they have heard all the evidence. The P&D Board will determine the punitive measures to be meted out after taking into account the following mitigating circumstances:—

1. Should the Referee indicate that the player has been under some provocation then the P&D Board may find below the guidelines.
2. If the player has an exemplary record than again the player may be given a punishment less than that indicated by the guidelines.
3. On the other hand if a player's record is long and continuous then the P&D Board may act by increasing the penalty suggested.

In all cases it is emphasised that the P&D Board members will determine the final penalty that a player must receive.

FEDERATION GOLD MEDAL

THE FEDERATION GOLD MEDAL AWARD

1989 saw the introduction of a new era in soccer in Western Australia with the inaugural award of "The Federation Gold Medal" for the best and fairest soccer played in the State.

After 18 years of private corporate sponsorship, the award was reverted to a new-look event under the auspices of the Soccer Federation of WA Inc.

The Award goes to the player in the Super League who receives the highest number of points from a voting system undertaken by match referees.

After each league game of the season the referee awards points to the players he considers the best and fairest, second best and third best on the field on a 3-2-1 basis.

In 1989, the award was supported by the Quit Campaign, which recognises Health and Fitness as essential to the well being of the community as a whole.

The acquisition of Quit as a sponsor was a conscious move by the Federation to follow the lead of the Australian Soccer Federation to remove tobacco advertising from the code.

The inaugural "Federation Gold Medal Award" recognises not only skill, but also a players integrity and fair play and as such the award will distinguish the winner both within soccer circles and beyond.

The winner of the award for the second year in succession was Floreat Athena captain Jeff Curran.

Curran won by six votes with a tally of 26 from Spearwood Dalmatinac's Noel Larkin and Kingsway Olympic's, Andy Wright, both of whom polled 20 votes.

The award was a tribute to Curran's ability and determination. Curran has been a vital part of Athena's success over the last two seasons and will continue to play a major role in Athena's quest for the 1990 premiership.

DORSOGNA CUP

Floreat Athena added yet another record to its belt in 1989 when it became the third club to win three consecutive cups.

This feat has been equaled only by Azzurri (1969-71) and Spearwood Dalmatinac (1983-85).

In an astonishing display of skill and power, Athena crushed their highly fancied opponents Perth Italia 3-1 in a match that left hundreds of the huge crowd dancing until dark.

The game was expected to be close encounter, however Athena's awesome attack put paid to that thought, demoralising Italia's defensive line.

After an indifferent first 30 minutes, Athena opened the scoring from the boot of Dorsogna Cup Medal recipient Jeff Curran, after a penalty.

That goal gave Athena momentum and set up a second goal when Paul Farmer crossed to Brian McHale in the box after a dashing run down the wing. McHale made no mistake and gave Athena a two nil lead.

The game appeared to be slipping from Italia who had failed to stamp any influence on the game. However to their credit they fought back, Peter Murphy heading home from a Garry Murray cross. Italia finished the term with spirit and looked like scoring another goal moments before half time. However, it wasn't to be and both teams returned to the changerooms, the scoreline 2-1 in Athena's favour.

The teams marched onto the pitch to do battle after the break, both sides determined to triumph.

However, Italia were caught flat-footed just minutes into the second half when Curran slammed home a 35 metre sizzling right foot free kick to beat the keeper.

It was a brilliant goal. one of the best ever seen in the history of the Cup, and one fans from both clubs will never forget.

It was the goal that broke Italia's back. Despite a number of attempts to find the net, Italia's forwards were repelled time after time by Athena which went on to achieve a memorable victory.

JEWELLER & VALUATOR

PERTH

Last season the Western Super Soccer League achieved a coup with the inaugural Chris Gogos Medal, a sponsorship worth in excess of $10,000 over the next five years.

The medal, made of 18 ct. gold, is presented to the best player for the Super League Grand Final. Last year's recipient was Perth Italia's Gerry Christie, for his stunning display in last year's premiership victory over Floreat Athena at Dorrien Gardens.

The medal is expected to become one of the premier trophies in this state.

The Western Super Soccer League wishes to thank Chris Gogos for his long standing contribution to soccer in W.A., one that will no doubt grow in the ensuring years.
